EXHIBIT 1

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF NEVADA

THE HON. DAVID A. EZRA, U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE,

PRESIDING

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

Case No:
2:05-cr-121-DAE-RJJ

vs.

ROBERT DAVID KAHRE, et al.,

Defendants.

REPORTER'S PARTIAL TRANSCRIPT OF JURY TRIAL

(TESTIMONY OF ROBERT KAHRE) (EXPEDITED TRANSCRIPT)

MONDAY, JULY 24, 2009

APPEARANCES: (See Page 2)

Court Reporter: Andrea N. Picard, CRR, CCR NO. 887

APPEARANCES:

For Plaintiff:

J. GREGORY DAMM, ESQ.
ASSISTANT UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
333 Las Vegas Boulevard South
Suite 5000
Las Vegas, Nevada 89101
TEL: (702) 388-6336

For Defendant Robert A. Kahre:

WILLIAM A. COHAN, ESQ.
WILLIAM A. COHAN, P.C.
PO BOX 3448
Rancho Santa Fe, California 92067
TEL: (858) 832-1632

For Defendant Robert A. Kahre: (Local counsel)

LISA RASMUSSEN, ESQ.
LAW OFFICE OF LISA RASMUSSEN
616 South 8th Street
Las Vegas, Nevada 89101
TEL: (702) 461-1436

For Defendant Alexander C. Loglia:

JOEL F. HANSEN
ATTORNEY AT LAW
415 South 6th Street
Las Vegas, Nevada 89101
TEL: (702) 385-5533

Case 09-14814-gwz Doc 1541-1 Entered 09/15/11 13:41:49 Page 4 of 6

2:05-cr-121-DAE-RJJ, July 24, 2009

Page 3	Page 5
APPEARANCES:	1 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; MONDAY, JULY 24, 2009, 10:42 AM
(Continued)	2 -oOo-
For Defendant Lori Kahre:	3 PROCEEDINGS
MICHAEL J. KENNEDY, ESQ.	4 (Previous proceedings not transcribed as
FIRST ASSISTANT FEDERAL DEFENDER	5 part of excerpt.)
411 East Bonneville Street Suite 250	6 THE COURT: Mr. Cohan, do you wish to call
Las Vegas, Nevada 89101	7 your first witness?
TEL: (702) 388-6577	8 MR. COHAN: I do, Your Honor, and that would
	9 be Mr. Robert Kahre.
For Defendant Danille Cline:	10 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Kahre, you can 11 take the stand.
LYNN E. PENAGAKOS	12 ROBERT KAHRE,
ATTORNEY AT LAW 345 Queen Street	13 having been first duly sworn to testify to the truth,
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813	14 the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, was
TEL: (808) 521-3336	15 examined and testified as follows:
	16 THE CLERK: Please have a seat. State your 17 name for the record, and spell your last name.
	18 THE WITNESS: Robert Kahre, K-A-H-R-E.
	19 THE COURT: You may proceed.
	20 MR. COHAN: Thank you, Your Honor.
	21 DIRECT EXAMINATION
	22 BY MR. COHAN:
	23 Q Good morning, Mr. Kahre. How are you doing?
	24 A Good morning.
	25 Q Well, my first question was: "How you
Page 4	Page 6
_	1 doing?"
	2 A Pretty good.
	3 Q Okay. Well, with that cautious beginning,
	4 let me ask you, first of all, arbitrarily on my part,
	5 about whether you have any familiarity with the iron
	6 working trade.
	7 A Yes. I started in about '86. I started as 8 an iron worker on a permit.
	9 Q Okay. And what does that mean, to start as an iron worker on a permit in terms of a job or career?
	11 A Well, it's a union job, and you don't get 12 access to the union book until you go through a process. Process on a permit is they let you go out 14 every month if there's work. If there's not work, yo can't go out. So you have to get 12 consecutive mon can't go out. So you have to get 12 consecutive mon to get a union book.
	<ul> <li>can't go out. So you have to get 12 consecutive mon</li> <li>to get a union book.</li> <li>Q And so in about 1986, you began this process</li> </ul> can't go out. So you have to get 12 consecutive mon to get a union book.  Q And so in about 1986, you began this process of becoming qualified to be is it called a journeyman or to get a union book.  Q And so in about 1986, you began this process of becoming qualified to be is it called a journeyman or  A Well, we called them "book hands"
	to get a union book.  Q And so in about 1986, you began this process of becoming qualified to be is it called a journeyman or  A Well, we called them "book hands"  Q Okay.
	to get a union book.  Q And so in about 1986, you began this process of becoming qualified to be is it called a journeyman or  A Well, we called them "book hands"  Q Okay.  A is the term in the trades.
	to get a union book.  Q And so in about 1986, you began this process of becoming qualified to be is it called a journeyman or  A Well, we called them "book hands"  Q Okay.

2:05-cr-121-DAE-RJJ, July 24, 2009

Page	143	Page	145
1	Now, you've we've all looked at two of	1	and it was it was a friend of mine. And so I did
2	these or these two statutes here, 22 USC 611 and 18	2	that say that at one time. And at that time from
3	USC 951?	3	there on, though, you could go into our office, and you
4	A Yes.	4	could readily get a copy of one of those. They weren't
5	Q Can you reduce what this paragraph is saying	5	like they were hidden or in a vault or anything. And
6	to a simple form and explain what it means to the jury	6	if anybody ever wanted to talk to me about it, I'd talk
7	as far as your understanding of the agreement that	7	to them about it. I'd explain it.
8	you're reaching with people who sign it and participate	8	Q This
9	in your payroll system or work for one of your sole	9	A The
10	proprietorships?	10	Q I'm sorry. Continue.
11	A What I was saying by this is I was telling	11	A Go ahead.
12	them that I was not an agent of a foreign principal and	12	Q Were you finished with your answer?
13	I was not going to withhold.	13	A Yes.
14	My understanding is the funding goes to the	14	Q Okay. Did you hear Dick Bozer [phonetic]
15	IRS and, in turn, the Secretary of Treasury, who	15	testify that he refused to sign the Independent
16	directs and controls finances and subsidizes them, is	16	Contract Agreement?
17	the governor of the World Bank and the International	17	A Yes, I did.
18	Monetary Fund and several other international financial		Q Did you insist that people sign it?
19	institutions.	19	A No.
20	And so, as we get through some of the other	20	Q But you wanted them to?
21	provisions here in the contract, it was my	21	A Yes. I wanted I wanted people to
22	understanding, by reading this and studying it, that	22	understand this. I didn't want to force it down their
23	they're promoting world government by this. There's	23	throat. This is the way I operated my business. There
24	100 — I believe right now there's 100 countries that	24	are plenty of people that may not agree with me, but
25	are involved in the IMF and the World Bank.	25	this is what I studied. This is what I learned. This
Page		Page
ļ		į –
1	The United States holds stock in the World	1	is how I set my business up. This was and I never
2	Bank in the International Monetary Fund. I believe	2	had any problems with anybody until after the raid and
3	it's like 16 and change percent of the stock. So all	3	the indictments.
4	these countries are grouped together. And what happens	4	Q Okay. The raid that you're talking about now
5	is, is the IMF, they – they get what is called	5	is the one in 2003?
6	"quotas" by the United States. Well, those quotas are	6	A Yes.
7	income – those quotas are – are what we call taxes.	7	Q Okay.
8	I call them forced contributions. And I believe, from	8	Now, once you started and there's been
9	what I've studied and looked at, that they're promoting	9	testimony about your entering into agreements with at
10	world government.	10	least 33 other businesses in Las Vegas.
11	Q So you're saying in this paragraph "I'm not	11	Can you describe the process of and I
12	participating, and you can if you want, but I'm not	12	don't know whether it was the same with all 33, so I
13	participating"?	13	guess that's my first question.
14	A I left the option open. I said, "If you want	14	Did you meet with 33 different business
15	a 1099, you want a W-2, go get your own, but this is	15	owners over the course of, I guess, several years?
16	what I'm doing, and here's why."	16	A Actually, no. I'll give you one example.
17	Q Now, there was testimony during this trial	17	Jim Rhodes, Rhodes Homes. He owned Bravo Framing, an
18	about your having instructed people that this contract	18	I never met with him, but he was signed up, and we were
19	was not to be distributed. Do you recall that?	19	doing work with him as well.
20	A Yes, I do.	20	Q Did you authorize somebody to, as you put it,
21	Q Okay. Did you ever make any statements that	21	sign Jim Rhodes up to participate in this program?
22	you didn't want these agreements distributed?	22	A Actually, I met some of the people, his
23	A Yes. There was a brief time that I said	23	underlings that worked at I think it was Bravo
24	that. And the reason why I said it was because I had	24	Framing, is the name of the company. And I worked – I
25	somebody take it and try to reduplicate it and redo it,	25	worked with them. I met with them one time, and I sat

Page	147	Page	149
1	down and I telling them what I believe, just like	1	THE COURT: Well, you prefaced it with a
2	I'm telling you, and they signed up.	2	leading comment, so his even if you asked the
3	Q And what did you tell them about the	3	question, it would be defective, so you have to
4	valuation of the coins that you were using to pay and	4	rephrase.
5	the exchange option that was available? Can you	5	MR. COHAN: I just was trying to invite the
6	explain to this to this jury what you said when you	6	witness's attention.
7	made presentations?	7	BY MR. COHAN:
	•	8	Q Did you authorize anybody or did you,
8	A Yes. I told people that I explained a	9	yourself, make any statements to that effect, to the
9	little bit about the monetary system, a little bit	10	effect that these coins can be considered only taxable
10	about the money. I didn't go into tremendous detail		at face value?
11	because I get what you call the "deer in the headlights	3
12	effect," you know. Some of this information is	12	A Well, that's a two-part question.
1.3	shocking to people. I'm not going to deny that. And	13	THE COURT: Exactly right. That's why it's
14	so you can't - I never tried to give people too much	14	objectionable, because it's you have to rephrase
15	all at once. There are people that wanted to know	15	your question.
16	more, and I would talk to them about it; but, for the	16	MR. COHAN: Okay.
17	most part, from what I've experienced with it, people	17	BY MR. COHAN:
18	just didn't really seem to - they liked the	18	Q What, if anything, did you say to anyone who
19	information, but I was, I think, the guy that went out	19	was a prospective participant in your payroll system
20	there and actually took the information out of all the	20	about the tax consequences of paying people in gold and
21	books and applied it, so -	21	silver coin minted after 1985 in the United States, the
22	Q So John Nelson, to your knowledge, taught	22	$50, $1 silver coins that Mr. Hanson always has with
23	this course and provided these materials to do you	23	him and that we've talked about throughout the trial?
24	know how many other people: Dozens? Hundreds?	24	A Well, let me explain so I can answer your
25	Thousands?	25	question.
Page	148	Page	150
1	A I wouldn't I wouldn't know that at all. I	1	Q I just have one here.
2	know that there was a couple classes here in Las Vegas,	2	A Yeah. Okay.
3	but I wouldn't know where else and how many people, no	. 3	Q Go ahead, please.
4	Q Did you ever discuss with Mr. Nelson whether	4
5			A First of all, you keep saying "the tax
, –	anyone else had implemented a similar payroll	5	A First of all, you keep saying "the tax consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent
6	anyone else had implemented a similar payroll arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying	5
İ	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying	1	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I
6 7	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?	6	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced
6	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying	6 7	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I
6 7 8 9	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.	6 7 8	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it
6 7 8 9	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective	6 7 8 9	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get
6 7 8 9 10	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll	6 7 8 9 10	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice.
6 7 8 9 10 11	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll system about the system and about your understanding of	6 7 8 9 10 11 12	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice. So I never authorized or told anybody or tried to give
6 7 8 9 10 11 12	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll system about the system and about your understanding of tax sequences, if you said anything at all?	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice. So I never authorized or told anybody or tried to give that type of legal advice. I might have said, well, if
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll system about the system and about your understanding of tax sequences, if you said anything at all?  A We really didn't discuss that. I told them	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice. So I never authorized or told anybody or tried to give that type of legal advice. I might have said, well, if it was me and if you were concerned and you wanted to
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll system about the system and about your understanding of tax sequences, if you said anything at all?  A We really didn't discuss that. I told them that I would treat everybody as an independent	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice. So I never authorized or told anybody or tried to give that type of legal advice. I might have said, well, if it was me and if you were concerned and you wanted to file, I said I would do it on the face value, but I
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll system about the system and about your understanding of tax sequences, if you said anything at all?  A We really didn't discuss that. I told them that I would treat everybody as an independent contractor, and I told them that I would have everybody	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice. So I never authorized or told anybody or tried to give that type of legal advice. I might have said, well, if it was me and if you were concerned and you wanted to file, I said I would do it on the face value, but I don't ever recall saying that too many times to
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll system about the system and about your understanding of tax sequences, if you said anything at all?  A We really didn't discuss that. I told them that I would treat everybody as an independent contractor, and I told them that I would have everybody sign an independent contractor and basically told them	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice. So I never authorized or told anybody or tried to give that type of legal advice. I might have said, well, if it was me and if you were concerned and you wanted to file, I said I would do it on the face value, but I don't ever recall saying that too many times to anybody.
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll system about the system and about your understanding of tax sequences, if you said anything at all?  A We really didn't discuss that. I told them that I would treat everybody as an independent contractor, and I told them that I would have everybody sign an independent contractor and basically told them I would explain the details in the contract.	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice. So I never authorized or told anybody or tried to give that type of legal advice. I might have said, well, if it was me and if you were concerned and you wanted to file, I said I would do it on the face value, but I don't ever recall saying that too many times to anybody.  Q Okay. Did you ever tell anybody that you'd
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll system about the system and about your understanding of tax sequences, if you said anything at all?  A We really didn't discuss that. I told them that I would treat everybody as an independent contractor, and I told them that I would have everybody sign an independent contractor and basically told them I would explain the details in the contract.  Q Okay. Now, there's been testimony that	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice. So I never authorized or told anybody or tried to give that type of legal advice. I might have said, well, if it was me and if you were concerned and you wanted to file, I said I would do it on the face value, but I don't ever recall saying that too many times to anybody.  Q Okay. Did you ever tell anybody that you'd gotten a legal opinion from a CPA or an attorney or any
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll system about the system and about your understanding of tax sequences, if you said anything at all?  A We really didn't discuss that. I told them that I would treat everybody as an independent contractor, and I told them that I would have everybody sign an independent contractor and basically told them I would explain the details in the contract.  Q Okay. Now, there's been testimony that representations were made that, for tax consequences,	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice. So I never authorized or told anybody or tried to give that type of legal advice. I might have said, well, if it was me and if you were concerned and you wanted to file, I said I would do it on the face value, but I don't ever recall saying that too many times to anybody.  Q Okay. Did you ever tell anybody that you'd gotten a legal opinion from a CPA or an attorney or any court that said what you just represented about face
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll system about the system and about your understanding of tax sequences, if you said anything at all?  A We really didn't discuss that. I told them that I would treat everybody as an independent contractor, and I told them that I would have everybody sign an independent contractor and basically told them I would explain the details in the contract.  Q Okay. Now, there's been testimony that	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice. So I never authorized or told anybody or tried to give that type of legal advice. I might have said, well, if it was me and if you were concerned and you wanted to file, I said I would do it on the face value, but I don't ever recall saying that too many times to anybody.  Q Okay. Did you ever tell anybody that you'd gotten a legal opinion from a CPA or an attorney or any court that said what you just represented about face value for tax consequences?
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll system about the system and about your understanding of tax sequences, if you said anything at all?  A We really didn't discuss that. I told them that I would treat everybody as an independent contractor, and I told them that I would have everybody sign an independent contractor and basically told them I would explain the details in the contract.  Q Okay. Now, there's been testimony that representations were made that, for tax consequences, the face value could be used to reduce or eliminate tax liability.	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice. So I never authorized or told anybody or tried to give that type of legal advice. I might have said, well, if it was me and if you were concerned and you wanted to file, I said I would do it on the face value, but I don't ever recall saying that too many times to anybody.  Q Okay. Did you ever tell anybody that you'd gotten a legal opinion from a CPA or an attorney or any court that said what you just represented about face value for tax consequences?  A Did I ever get an opinion?
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll system about the system and about your understanding of tax sequences, if you said anything at all?  A We really didn't discuss that. I told them that I would treat everybody as an independent contractor, and I told them that I would have everybody sign an independent contractor and basically told them I would explain the details in the contract.  Q Okay. Now, there's been testimony that representations were made that, for tax consequences, the face value could be used to reduce or eliminate tax	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice. So I never authorized or told anybody or tried to give that type of legal advice. I might have said, well, if it was me and if you were concerned and you wanted to file, I said I would do it on the face value, but I don't ever recall saying that too many times to anybody.  Q Okay. Did you ever tell anybody that you'd gotten a legal opinion from a CPA or an attorney or any court that said what you just represented about face value for tax consequences?  A Did I ever get an opinion?  Q Right.
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	arrangement such as yours, by which I mean the paying in gold and silver coin?  A I never heard him say that he knew anybody that did this.  Q Okay. Now, what did you tell the prospective contractors who ultimately ended up using your payroll system about the system and about your understanding of tax sequences, if you said anything at all?  A We really didn't discuss that. I told them that I would treat everybody as an independent contractor, and I told them that I would have everybody sign an independent contractor and basically told them I would explain the details in the contract.  Q Okay. Now, there's been testimony that representations were made that, for tax consequences, the face value could be used to reduce or eliminate tax liability.	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	consequences," and as I've laid out in the Independent Contract Agreement, these were forced contributions. I never claimed that they were a tax. They were forced contributions. And as far as the face value, I left it open for everybody. They had a — they had a choice to do what they wanted to do. Whether they wanted to get involved in the information and study was their choice. So I never authorized or told anybody or tried to give that type of legal advice. I might have said, well, if it was me and if you were concerned and you wanted to file, I said I would do it on the face value, but I don't ever recall saying that too many times to anybody.  Q Okay. Did you ever tell anybody that you'd gotten a legal opinion from a CPA or an attorney or any court that said what you just represented about face value for tax consequences?  A Did I ever get an opinion?